

Course Web (Blackboard) Login Instructions

Overview

The term "CourseWeb" refers to the University of Pittsburgh's implementation of the Blackboard course management system (originally know as CourseInfo). The University uses Blackboard to support its on-campus and distance education course offerings. In order to access a course in Blackboard, you must have an active University Computer Account. Because Blackboard is web-based, you also need Internet access with a web browser such as Internet Explorer, Netscape, Mozilla, Firefox, etc. To login, perform the steps below.

1. Connect to the Internet, open your browser, and type the URL

<http://courseweb.pitt.edu>

2. Click on the User Login button.

After you login, the My CourseWeb page is displayed.

To access your courses from the My CourseWeb page, click the link to the course name in the “My Courses” module.

As a student, you also have access to the Courses, Organizations, and Scholar pages. The Courses page contains a list of all classes in which you are enrolled. The Organizations page gives you access to the organizations in which you are enrolled. Scholar is a social bookmarking service customized for education. To navigate to those pages within Blackboard, click on the appropriate tab.

The screenshot shows the Blackboard interface for a student. At the top, there's a navigation bar with tabs for 'My CourseWeb', 'Courses', 'Organizations', and 'Scholar'. Below this, a 'Welcome, Student' message is visible. A red bracket highlights the 'Courses' tab, and a red arrow points to the 'My Courses' module on the right. The 'My Courses' module displays 'Courses in which you are enrolled:' with a link to 'Hillyard_One Course'. Other modules include 'My Announcements', 'My Calendar', and 'My Organizations'. A 'Tools' sidebar on the left lists options like Announcements, Calendar, Tasks, View Grades, Send Email, User Directory, Address Book, and Personal Information.

★ Please remember to Logout by clicking the  button when you are finished using Blackboard to ensure privacy.
