Course-related items

Course requirements were appropriate for the level of the course and credits earned.

Course was well organized.

Course was appropriately paced.

Course description was accurate in describing course content.

Material was coordinated in a meaningful sequence.

The instructor followed the syllabus closely.