Examinations and quizzes

Examinations covered material presented in the class.

Examinations reflected important aspects of the course.

Grading of the exams that have been returned to you was reasonable and fair.

Quizzes were helpful in learning the material.

Quizzes helped me to prepare for the exams.

Quizzes should be used again in teaching this course.

Examinations were fair.

Examination items were clear and understandable.

Examinations provided opportunity to demonstrate what I learned in the course.

Exams stressed synthesis and evaluation of information rather than memorizing facts.