Planning and organization

Instructor made good use of class time.

Instructor was well prepared for each day's class.

Instructor gave well-organized lectures.

Instructor related the subject matter to other fields.

Instructor clearly explained the course objectives.

Instructor lectured in a manner that facilitated good notetaking.

Instructor clearly indicated transition from one topic to the next.

Instructor planned classroom activities that engaged students in learning.