Readings

Readings contributed to my attainment of the course objectives.

Readings stimulated my interest in the course.

Readings were relevant to the material presented in class.

Readings on reserve at the library were available when sought.

Readings could be completed in a reasonable amount of time.

Recommended readings made a valuable contribution to my learning.