Clinical

The instructor gave useful feedback on patient assessments.

The instructor treated students as professional members of the health care team.

The instructor demonstrated technical skills with confidence.

The instructor identified specific problems with my clinical skills.

The instructor gave practical suggestions to help students improve technical skills.

The instructor helped students relate classroom learning to the clinical experience.

The clinical experience helped me develop diagnostic skills.

The clinical experience made a valuable contribution to my development as a professional.

The instructor helped students relate theoretical learning to the clinical experience.

The clinical site provided sufficient opportunities for practicing clinical skills.

My preceptor provided me with learning experiences that facilitated my clinical and professional growth.

The clinical site provided varied experiences.

The clinical site provided examples of nursing leadership.