Online

The directions for the use of online materials were clear.
The instructor clearly explained the technical requirements for the course.
The online course materials were easy to use.
The online course materials found in Blackboard made a valuable contribution to my learning.
There was an adequate amount of online course materials available to meet my learning goals.
The instructor provided clear guidelines for course requirements.
The instructor's feedback was helpful to my learning.
The instructor provided feedback in a timely fashion.
The instructor facilitated a sufficient level of online interaction.
The online interactions contributed to my understanding of the course content.
The course assignments made a valuable contribution to my online learning.
Online learning is as effective as regular classroom instruction.
Overall, I was satisfied with my online course experience.